THE GREAT
KIDNEY REGULATOR
AND DIURETIC.
KIDNEGEN is highly recommended and unsurpassed for WEAK or FOUL KIDNEYS, DROPSY, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, LOSS of ENERGY, NERVOUS DEBILITY, or any OBSTRUCTIONS arising from GRAVEL or BLADDER DISEASES. Also for YELLOW FEVER, BLOOD and KIDNEY POISONING, in infected malarial sections.
By the distillation of a FOREST LEAF with JUNIPER BERRIES and BARLEY MALT we have discovered KIDNEGEN, which acts specifically on the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, removing deposits in the Bladder and any straining, smarting, heat or irritation in the water passages, giving them strength, vigor and causing a healthy color and easy flow of urine. It can be taken at all times, in all climates, without injury to the system. Unlike any other preparation for Kidney difficulties, it has a very pleasant and agreeable taste and flavor. It contains positive diuretic properties and will not nauseate. Ladies especially will like it, and Gentlemen will find KIDNEGEN the best Kidney Tonic ever used!
NOTICE.—Each bottle bears the signature of LAWRENCE & MARTIN, also a Proprietary Government Stamp, which permits KIDNEGEN to be sold (without license) by druggists, grocers and other persons everywhere.
Put up in Quart-size Bottles for General and Family Use.
LAWRENCE & MARTIN, Prop'rs, Chicago, Ill.
Sold by Druggists, Grocers and Dealers everywhere.

CANTERBURY SHAKERS'
LIFE-INVIGORATING
SARSAPARILLA.
The Great Blood Purifier, Kidney Remedy and Mild Laxative.
We, the undersigned, having used DR. CORBETT'S SHAKER SARSAPARILLA SYRUP in our practice, and having examined the formula by which it is prepared, would cheerfully recommend it to the community as the cheapest, safest and most efficacious of all the preparations of Sarsaparilla in the market. Its highly concentrated state (there being in a given amount of Syrup twice the amount of Vegetable Extract that any other contains), the care, skill and cleanliness of its manufacture, are sure guarantees of its purity and effect: T. R. CROSBY, M. D., W. D. BUCK, M. D., S. BUNTON, M. D., J. S. ELLIOT, M. D., JAMES BABB, M. D., Z. COLBURN, M. D., M. G. J. TEWKSBURY, M. D., A. G. FRENCH, M. D., JOSIAH CROSBY, M. D., A. G. GALE, M. D., JAMES A. GREGG, M. D.
Those who have failed to be benefited by other Sarsaparillas should not fail to make a single trial of this Blood Purifying and Life Invigorating Compound of Shaker Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Mandrake, Black Cohosh, Garget, Indian Hemp and the berries of Juniper and Cubeb, combined with Iodide of Potassium made by the Society.
Prepared by the CANTERBURY SOCIETY OF SHAKERS, Shaker Village, N. H., and signed by Thos. Corbett, its inventor. Sold everywhere. Inquire for Corbett's Shakers' Sarsaparilla.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Lewiston: City Marshal Smith and officer Stone didn't stop to rap, when they arrived at the little hut occupied by Mary Gray, on Lincoln street, about eleven o'clock, Saturday night, and found the doors bolted and the lights out. They broke in the front door, and heard one loud war-whoop from Mrs. Gray, who obviously thought the British had come. She was so frightened she didn't get out of bed, and while searching the house, the officers had no interruptions. They found, in all, about two quarts of rum,—"here a little and there a little," behind and beneath the kitchen furniture. Mrs. Gray was fined $100 and cost, by Judge Cornish, Monday morning. She had no money and was taken to jail. Her little boy, a lad of seven or eight years, is left practically motherless; and will probably be taken to the poor farm. He played about the corridors of the lockup, until his mother was taken to jail. Mrs. Gray is the widow of "Dolly" Gray, who was hung in Canada for murder, a few months ago.——Edward McNally wound up a drunken spree by appearing in the midst of a prayer meeting in Park street M. E. church, Sunday evening. It was certainly a good place for him, if he had gone in the right spirit, but spirit of the wrong complexion had the upper hands of McNally, and made him demonstrative and obnoxious. When ordered out, he used profanity and made a great disturbance. The police took McNally to the station, after a hard struggle. McNally was sent to jail for 90 days, in the police court, Monday morning. Sixty days were for the disturbance and thirty days for an assault on one of the officers. The next time he is drunk, he will probably avoid a righteously muscular prayer-meeting.

Aroostook.

The Houlton Pioneer says: Moses Brothers, corn and fruit canners, have removed from Houlton to Dexter, being unable to secure the planting of fifty acres of sweet corn by the farmers in this town.——The report of our selectmen shows the amount of real and personal estate, as per valuation by tax assessors of 1880, $656,555. Number of polls, 569. Poll tax, $3. Rate of taxation, 26 mills on a dollar, or $26 on $1000. Our pauper expenses for the past year amount to $1586.——A large amount of freight is at the station waiting cars for transportation. The scarcity of freight cars at this end of the route is no fault of the railroad company, nor in fact of any railroad company. Mr. Osburn, manager of the N. B. & C., lately returned from Boston, whither he went to ascertain the cause. There he found upwards of four hundred cars standing upon the track, loaded with freight from the east, some of them having been there several weeks. At Salem were car-loads of bark which arrived there from Houlton in January. The railroad company are of course entitled to collect pay for use of cars until unloaded, and in many instances the consignees prefer to pay instead of unloading freight intended for consumption beyond the city limits. A carload of potatoes from Houlton arrives in Boston, but may be wanted in a few days by some dealer in a neighboring city or town; consequently it is not unloaded until it reaches the place of consumption. In the absence of any law to compel consignees to unload cars until they choose to, it is proposed to add to the freight tariff a liberal per cent., to be deducted on condition that the car is unloaded within a specified time. Relief will no doubt come in time; meanwhile it is gratifying to know that business revival is the cause of this temporary annoyance.

Cumberland.

Portland: Monday afternoon as a hackman, was leading one of his horses by a halter down Preble street, the animal broke away and made for the stable on Centre street. A little daughter of Mr. Libby, who lives at the corner of Cumberland and Green streets, was crossing Centre street, and the horse struck her with his hoofs and threw her violently to the ground. No bones were broken, but it was feared that she was injured internally. There were bad bruises on the back of her head. She was quite comfortable at last accounts. ——In the window of W. C. Clark, may be seen a curious piece of mechanism, which attracts the attention of many of the passers by. It is an electric pendulum nicely adjusted and of just the right length to vibrate once in a second, or sixty times a minute. Mr. Clark intends to construct a clock which shall consist of only two wheels, the motive power being electricity.

Freeport: The new dredge, Freeport, owned by Moore and Wright, was launched at that port, Monday. She was built by Henry Carter, of Freeport. She is 105 feet in length, 35 feet beam and 10 feet deep. She is built of the best material, in a strong and durable manner, about 400 knees, and 18 tons of bolt iron having been used in her construction. She is pointed at bow and stern, is arranged for a shaft log and can be fitted with a propeller when needed. She was towed to the Portland company's wharf, where she will receive her machinery and boilers. She is to be fitted with three double engines, her main engine having cylinders 16 by 24 inches. When completed she will be used for dredging at Lubec.

Franklin.

Rev. James J. York, of Temple, died March 13th, aged 73 years, 3 months and 3 days. He experienced religion and was baptized by Rev. Elias Hutchins in 1824, and joined the Free Baptist church on Severy Hill, at East Dixfield, where he became a consistent and successful member, and subsequently became a preacher of that order.——Dr. Samuel F. Small, died March 18th, aged 60 years, 10 months. His funeral services were conducted at his late home, by Rev. Mr. Fitz, and his remains were interred at the Riverside cemetery, Farmington. He was twice chosen representative to the legislature, and held various town offices for years, to the general acceptance of all parties. He was a native of Jay, and was youngest of the three sons (who all became doctors, and all now deceased.) of the late Dr. Samuel Small, Sr., of Jay.

Hancock.

Capt. S. L. Lord, of Ellsworth, left home on Thursday last, to go to New York, to take charge of the bark "Julia," which has been chartered, and is loading for Australia.——Union river and bay have been open to navigation since the 17th inst., and the coasting trade from the port of Ellsworth has received an early and active opening.——Some of the mills are starting up. As soon as the river above the dams is clear of ice, the mills will commence in earnest, and will manufacture lumber very fast. Milliken's mill alone has the capacity to manufacture 120 thousand of long lumber every 24 hours.——Dr. L. W. Hodgkins, it is reported, has sold his mine in Hancock to parties out of the State, and has made a clean profit of several thousand dollars by the operation.——The citizens of Ellsworth have pretty generally got their tempers up about the non-enforcement of the liquor law, and are determined that something shall be done. A movement is now on foot to have a county constable appointed.

Oxford.

Sumner: The saw mill, grist mill, rake factory and dowel works are all running on full time, and are all propelled by water-power which is amply sufficient just now, with a surplus to spare. A large amount of birch has been hauled in to be made into dowels, also, ash for rakes, of which Gammon Bros. are making an increased amount. But very little cord wood has been hauled in, as the price will hardly compensate for the labor.

Sagadahoc.

During the heavy wind, Saturday night, the railroad fence and grass in an adjoining field at the south end of Richmond, caught fire from a passing train, and was only prevented from spreading to the neighboring houses by the residents in that vicinity turning out and fighting the flames.

Somerset.

At a town meeting held at Pittsfield, on Saturday, the 26th inst., it was voted to raise and appropriate a sum not exceeding $3,000, for the procuring of a fire department. It was also voted (informally) to adopt the town system of schools. A town meeting has been called to make the last measure a legal one. It was a happy day for the inhabitants of Pittsfield. The village wished for a fire department and the out-of-the-village people wished for the adoption of the town system, and both were voted for, almost unanimously.——The recent fire is a severe blow to the present prosperity of the town, but it is hoped that in the end it will work out great good.

CARD.
To the Public:
The PROMISED BIG SIGN is up, and flying, on Kenduskeag Bridge, over MR. N. KENNEY'S old and well established Meat Market, near the place where I sold my first fish in Bangor, thirty-five years ago this month, one week before the great flood drove me back, till the Market was rebuilt, then into it and at it again on the same Bridge; then driven by fire into Norombega Market. Had money then; left it with nothing. In connection with Mr. Kenney, by honest and upright dealings, with all hopes to make something yet, I do most sincerely desire the patronage of all my old friends and customers in the City and country, and you shall be assured of getting as good meats as you want, and as nice fresh and salt fish in their season, as can be found in any other Market in the state.
All of which is most respectfully submitted.
CALL, MY FRIENDS, AND SEE ME.
Yours truly,
Maj. THOMAS BICKFORD.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed: "Editor of Whig and Courier."

THURSDAY, MARCH 31, 1881.

AN UNDIPLOMATIC DIPLOMATIST.

[From the Philadelphia North American.]

The business-like and straightforward manner in which Mr. Blaine is conducting the affairs of state is already producing practical and very satisfactory results. Mr. Blaine believes in dispensing, as far as possible, with formality and circumlocution. He sees no reason why the business of a nation should not be transacted in the same spirit as the business of an individual, and for the elaborate periphrases which have generally been regarded as an inseparable adjunct of diplomatic negotiation he has but small respect. Unlike his immediate predecessor, who loves the linked sweetness long drawn out of an orotund and musically modulated sentence, Mr. Blaine prefers to come to the point with all possible directness. He has no respect whatever for Talleyrand's famous maxim, and if no man can be a diplomatist unless he has mastered the art of using words to conceal thoughts, the Secretary of State can hardly hope to win distinction in his present field of labor. So far from following the Frenchman's advice, he does the exact opposite, and is mainly anxious so to speak as to make his meaning too clear to be misunderstood.

Conscious that Americans want nothing but what is right, and that they are both able and willing to compel, should the necessity arise, the rendition of what is justly due, Mr. Blaine feels under no obligation to pick and choose his words until what is a just demand assumes the form of an apologetic petition. Lord Granville, who is himself a diplomatist of the old-fashioned school, and delights in polishing his phrases until all the rough edges of an unwelcome statement have been smoothed away, must at the first have been somewhat disconcerted by the transition from the courtly suavity of Mr. Evarts to the brusque and independent frankness of Mr. Blaine. But the important thing is that where the grandiloquence of the one was ineffectual, the other's plainness of speech has made the desired impression, and negotiations which Mr. Evarts carried on without result for two or three years have under the new regime been brought to an issue in almost as many weeks. It was about three years ago that the Fortune Bay outrage occurred. Some American fishermen, while exercising the privilege for which the Halifax Commission made us pay so dearly, were attacked by their Newfoundland rivals, their seines destroyed, the fish they had caught thrown into the sea, and they themselves violently entreated and forced to find refuge in flight. The attention of the British government was called to this outrage, and a bill of damages amounting to $103,000 was submitted for payment.

Then the correspondence began, and reams of foolscap must have been consumed in the interchange of views between London and Washington, upon the questions in dispute. Mr. Evarts had decidedly the best of the argument, but Lord Salisbury was not thereby prevented from repudiating our claim upon the ground that as our citizens were fishing on Sunday, contrary to the local law, they got no more than they deserved. Of course we were not prepared to admit that an international treaty could be controlled and restricted by municipal regulations. So when the Liberals came into power, the correspondence was resumed, and has been going on ever since. Happily the end is at last in sight. The British authorities admit their obligation; we consent to an abatement of the amount claimed, and a troublesome controversy is safely over. Thus is Mr. Blaine's policy of frankness justified in its operation.

THE PRESIDENT'S OPPORTUNITY.

[From the Philadelphia North American.]

General Garfield has hardly been President three weeks when he is confronted with an exceedingly delicate and difficult task. The Senate has been organized in the interest of the Republican party by the vote of William Mahone, of Virginia. If it is to continue reliably Republican for the next two years, perhaps longer, the little Virginian must be kept in good humor. It is a curious thing to admit, but whether admitted or not it is true, and we are entitled to repeat the historic inquiry, What are you going to do about it? Senator Mahone has shown that he is no fool; in fact, very far from it. He cannot fail to see that no recognition of any kind which he receives on account of circumstances based on national party divisions can ever alter the fact that repudiation of a public debt is as dishonest as outright stealing, and that decent public opinion can never countenance that disgraceful repudiation of a part of the debt of Virginia at which the Readjuster party aims.

Were the President of the United States a man of less candor, ability and discretion than that which we know General Garfield to possess, we would doubt whether he could deal with the situation in such a way as to violate no law of moral, official or social propriety. President Garfield is afflicted with none of his predecessor's notions that because a man holds a public office he is temporarily suspended from citizenship and should not participate in political organization or work. He is therefore not likely to issue any orders which will unduly restrain Federal officials in Virginia from the exercise of their political rights. But he can, and we do not doubt that he will, in every proper manner, use his influence against the triumph of any repudiation scheme in Virginia. Let us for a moment reflect on the situation. By the peculiar prominence into which Senator Mahone has drifted, the Virginia debt question rises from any issue of local importance to one of national bearing. Consider what would be the effect upon the prospects of the Republican party, and through it upon the prosperity of the nation at large, if, owing to influence whose exercise was silently permitted by the head of the national administration, the State of Virginia repudiated $11,000,000 of the $30,000,000 which she justly owes. The North American has always and consistently opposed repudiation in any form as a crime, and therefore needs not to repeat to any further extent the great objection that it is wrong. It can afford to point now to the expediency side of the question, and to sound the note of warning that such a policy as the recognition of repudiation in a State will be injurious to the prospects of the Republican party in the nation. In the name of that party and its interests, there is a loud demand upon the President to exercise the power which he possesses to prevent the fixing of an ineradicable stain upon the party escutcheon. No President ever owed his election so largely to the vote of the honest, God-fearing, repudiation-hating, fraud-despising, conservative Republican citizens in every doubtful State, as does James A. Garfield. That element demands that the power which they aided in entrusting to him be not prostituted to the selfish purposes of a local gang of unscrupulous southern office-seekers, with the result of disgracing the fair name of a State that with honest management of her affairs is just entering upon an era of prosperity. A grave responsibility rests upon President Garfield. We believe he is capable of meeting it squarely and honestly and handling it dexterously and gracefully. The Republican party has a right to expect that he will do so, and is watching his every step relative to Virginia affairs with the keenest interest.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

[From the Boston Journal.]

The war upon Senator Mahone in the Senate has at least resulted in placing before the public the merits of the two factions there relative to the public debt of Virginia. Those who have followed the debate have doubtless learned what has frequently been stated in these columns, namely, that on the question of repudiation in Virginia it was simply one of percentage, as both the Funders and the Readjusters were committed to the policy of scaling down. The entire debt, as footed up to 1871, was $45,718,119. As the debt was contracted before the war for internal improvements, it was held that a part of it should be assumed by West Virginia, and the Funders further assumed that more than one-third of the entire amount, or $15,778,000, was the share of the latter State. West Virginia, however, would not assume more than $1,000,000. The Funders in Virginia, nevertheless, paid the $15,718,000 by certifying that it belonged to West Virginia to pay. Thus, before Mahone and the Readjusters' party had a separate political existence, the men who have controlled Virginia from the first had repudiated one-third of the debt. During several years that the Funders were in power they made no real effort to pay the interest upon the $30,000,000 which they admitted to be the just debt of Virginia. It was not until 1879 that the Funders took steps to put their debt in a form in which the creditors could hope for any return upon their money. At that time a bill was passed assuming $30,000,000 of the debt which was to be funded into bonds which should bear 3 per cent. interest for ten years, 4 per cent. for ten years and 5 per cent. for twenty years when the debt is to be paid.

The proposition of the Readjusters is not so definite. Senator Mahone is personally reported to be in favor of calling the debt $30,000,000. In his speech Monday he declared that he does not favor the repudiation of a dollar of the debt but is opposed to paying the interest which accrued during the war. The bill which the Readjusters have favored in the Legislature scales the debt down to $20,000,000. Thus it appears that funding or readjusting differs simply in the amount which they offer the bondholders.

In the next campaign, however, the question of the debt will not be a prominent issue. In a letter published in the Richmond Whig, John A. Wise charges the Bourbon leaders with a purpose of allowing to pledge itself to pay as little of the debt as they please, if by so doing, they will enable them to carry the State in the next election. Doubtless this is a strong statement of the case; but it is nevertheless evident that the debt question will occupy a minor place in the next campaign. The fight in Virginia will be between the progressive and the retrogressive elements. Senator Mahone makes impartial suffrage, equal rights for all and a liberal public school system the leading issues, while his opponents, in their recent address, declare a purpose to make the question of race supremacy the leading question. The fight is clearly one between the old privileged class to retain their power and the masses who desire to put Virginia among the progressive States.

Senator Mahone's speech will attract attention. He has his adversaries at a disadvantage. He certainly makes a strong point when he declares that Senators representing States that have repudiated and scaled down their debts from 50 to 75 per cent. are not in the position to denounce him as a repudiator. He turns the tables upon those Democratic Senators like Mr. Voorhees who have advocated the payment of the public debt with greenbacks or depreciated silver, and with those who have threatened to repudiate the national debt when he contrasted their records with their denunciation of him as a repudiator. Never was hypocrisy more thoroughly exposed and Phariseeism made to appear more ridiculous.

AN AUDACIOUS HARANGUE.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal writes: The speeches Tuesday were mostly without interest. Jonas, formerly from Quincy, Illinois, now from Louisiana, in feebly contemptuous terms upbraided certain Democratic Senators who voted to seat Mr. Kellogg, and with great audacity declared that Louisiana had but one Senator upon the floor, and that the State, though grieving, could not help it. Mr. Kellogg, who is recognized by the United States if not by the gentleman formerly from Quincy, as a Senator from Louisiana, happens to be Chairman of the Committee on Railroads. Mr. Jonas has no Committee. Mr. Jonas seems to have great facility in making himself ridiculous.

Governor Kellogg did not permit the day to pass without replying to the audacious harangue of Jonas in fitting terms. Mr. Kellogg was absent from the chamber when Jonas made his speech, an absence which possibly Mr. Jonas could not have noticed in accordance with the usual courtesy of Senators when speaking of each other, inasmuch as he does not recognize that Louisiana has two Senators sitting in that chamber; but he had occasion before the day was out to feel at least that Mr. Kellogg was here, as the latter replied in burning and contemptuous words to the language of Mr. Jonas, formerly of Illinois, now of Louisiana.

THE WISEST COURSE.

[From the Utica Herald (Rep.)]

If Senator Conkling is wise he will accept the will of the President and of Republicans everywhere for harmony and united action. President Hayes stood still and let Mr. Conkling assail and wage war upon him. The Administration as now constituted will do no such thing. It will have peace, and an honorable peace, if it has to fight for it, manfully, openly, aggressively and to the end. The Republican party of New York and of the Nation will sustain President Garfield and his Cabinet with cordial enthusiasm and none the less because Secretary Blaine is at its head.

The Johnson family are mentioned as cherishing pride in the tiny tailor's shop in Greenville, Tenn., where the former President once sewed for his living, and with its sign, "A. Johnson," it is carefully preserved.

LOST IN THE SNOW.

A BRAVE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE BY THREE MEN IN WYOMING.

[From the Helena (Montana) Herald.]

A story of almost incredible endurance and fortitude comes from the far West with the reports of floods and snow storms. Three men, including E. D. N. Cooke, Superintendent of the stage line, started from Fort Fetterman, on the Upper North Platte River, for Rock Creek Station, on the Union Pacific Railroad, on a buckboard drawn by two powerful horses. The snow was falling fast and drifting badly, and before they had reached the 22-mile station they had completely lost the trail and the horses were suffered to wander about guided only by their own instinct. After a time they left the buckboard behind them and endeavored to push forward on horseback. At one point Mr. Foote was nearly killed by his horse, which fell backward into a snowdrift eight feet deep. After this the horses were abandoned, and the men struggled along on foot, hands, face and feet being badly frozen. The three men had three sacks of mail and a canvas overcoat. The first man would stand on his mail-sack and throw the coat ahead of him, allowing him to take one step. Then each man would follow on, step by step, and the last man, picking up the fourth's bag, would heave it ahead for the first one to step on. In this way they made something like three miles, and when the third night set in they began calling for help, and in half an hour or so were answered by the firing of a gun, but the wind was so strong they could not form any idea of the direction it came from. Again and again they called, and finally a light was seen; and in an hour and a half they made the last quarter of a mile, finding themselves at the stage station, twenty-five miles from the starting point. The driver had to be dragged the last quarter of a mile, and Mr. Foote says: "When I knew that I was safe it seemed impossible for me to walk. I fell down twice in making the last few yards from the stable. I had no strength to walk, and after entering the barn I could not eat.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Not a National bank so much as quivered when Voorhees threatened to assault the whole of them.

It has been decided that the Treasury cannot devote money derived from a temporary loan to the redemption of the maturing bonds, as such indebtedness cannot be considered surplus money in the Treasury.

Mrs. Garfield, who speaks French and German fluently, is said to be the first President's wife able to talk with foreign diplomats in the court language of Europe. Her husband is also accomplished in German and French.

Washington has narrowly missed the boon of Count Herbert Bismarck's presence. It was only his abrupt departure for Italy, it is reported, which prevented his appearance there at his father's command as first Secretary to the German Embassy.

Millet's "Angelus" has just been sold in Paris for $33,000. It was originally sold by the painter to a dealer for $200; it was then purchased by another dealer for $1,000, and at its next sale went up to $7,200. Meissonier's picture, the "Halte des Cavaliers," has been sold for $25,000.

With a big cotton crop and a big wheat crop promised this year, with no Congress to meddle with and muddle business, with a President who knows what he ought to do, and how to do it, there would seem to be nothing for the chronic croaker to do but go to bed.

Senator Mahone was burned in effigy in Athens, Ga., by the students of the State University. A nephew of Senator Brown having participated, brings to mind the fact that in 1868 Senator Brown was also burned in effigy by the students then attending the same institution.

The late Edward Everett was noted for his memory. His oration on Webster, one of the longest he ever delivered, was corrected by him for the press within an hour of its delivery, but he did not skip a correction in its delivery. It is said that Lord Beaconsfield has handed a speech to the reporters at meetings, and he has then repeated it without the mistake of a word.

It is asserted that Governor Colquitt of Georgia, on visiting those who are under State Prison sentence but whose labor is sold under a barbarous contract system, pardoned fifty convicts because he was satisfied that the men had been guilty of no crime, but that they were convicted on false charges by those who coveted their services. Of course they were colored men. This is one of the outrages which will go to the wall with Bourbonism.

There are correspondents at Washington who are the mere mouthpieces of certain Senators, and they have commenced their attacks upon President Garfield because he labors under the impression that, having been elected President, the duties of the office should be discharged by himself, as he is responsible to the people. Covert attacks, rumors of Cabinet dissensions and "sich like" are the stock in trade of these gentlemen of the quill, who, if they do not find a new sensation every day, are sure to invent one.—Boston Journal.

General Simon Cameron said at his birthday dinner: "A man who makes no enemies is never a positive force. I began life with a determination to succeed, with what result others must judge. I have made it a rule of life to be kind to everyone and considerate to all. Yet I have made enemies, because I have had opinions and asserted them. But this has brought me friends also, and wherever I go, at home or abroad, the grateful evidences of their regard greet me. I have lived long and seen much of life, and when I am gone all I ask is that people can say that I did the best I could and was ever true to my obligations and my friends."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The advertising columns of the New York papers are so much used by swindlers to reach persons who may be imposed upon by their schemes that two detectives at police headquarters are employed in looking through these journals daily and investigating suspicious advertisements.

Omaha boasts a remarkably lucky man, one James McCann, who at divers times and in different places has found $280 in greenbacks, $70,000 in national bank notes $15,000 in bank bills and $90,000 in Union Pacific land certificates, and in all cases has easily found the rightful owners and returned the valuables.

A Chicago jewelry firm has put up a sign 129 feet long, and 5½ wide, which consumed 4000 feet of lumber, $400 worth of gold and $250 worth of metal ornaments, was three months in course of construction, and cost $2500.

The London and Northwestern Railway Company of Great Britain, including the extra lines laid down over a great portion of their system, and the vast number of sidings, are said to maintain no less than 10,000 miles of railway. The capital stock amounts to £100,000,000, and the weekly receipts are nearly £200,000. The company employ upward of 3000 locomotives, a magnificent fleet of steamers, between 2000 and 3000 horses, and an army of 50,000 men.

This improvement is valuable and can best be appreciated by housekeepers. All articles can be seen while in process of baking or roasting, without opening the oven door thereby preventing all odors from escaping and all kinds of pastry and cake from falling, and insuring a perfect success in roasting meats and poultry. The glass is ⅜ inch best French plate and capable of withstanding intense heat without injury, while no smoke or steam can obstruct the view from the oven. The glass is in a frame which is attached inside of the door and can be removed without danger of breaking. We would call attention to the many and valuable improvements we have added to the

A Just Address from Colored Republicans

A delegation of fifty colored men representing the colored Republicans of Louisiana called upon the President to-day and presented an address setting forth the views of the colored people in their State It claims that the colored race of Louisiana has kept pace with the rest of the Union in the march of progress, they pay taxes on $25,000,000 of property and by their labor raise seven-eighths of the sugar and rice crop, and five-eighths of the cotton crop, that they ask no new legislation only the honest enforcement of the existing laws for their protection; especially an equal participation in the advantages of the public schools system, and freedom and protection of the right of suffrage. The President in reply renewed the assurances of his inaugural and urged upon their consideration the importance to their race of education, and personal ownership of the soil upon which they live and toil.

The Streets Flooded and Considerable Damage Done Along the Coast.

Unprecedented Fall of Snow In Ohio

NEW YORK, March 30—2 P. M. The storm here is very heavy. The wind is blowing 58 miles per hour. Rain has fallen profusely, and the tide is very high, flooding the streets and cellars contiguous to the East and North Rivers The storm raged badly on the Long Island shores Several yachts were disabled.

MORGANS, N J., March 30. For twelve hours a storm of great fury with a tide of unusual hight has been doing much damage along the Bay Shore. Between South Amboy and Cliff Wood the breakers dashed over the stone bulkhead upon the coaches of passing trains. The shore is strewn with wreckage stuff. Two canal boats were washed upon Rocky Beach and went to pieces.

LONG BRANCH, March 30. A storm of unusual magnitude has been sweeping the coast since four o'clock this morning. The velocity of the wind is the highest noted along the coast the past winter.

CEDAR BEACH, N. J., March 30 The storm at this point is furious. The fragments of a scow, those of a tug boat and a portion of a spile driver were washed ashore near this place at noon, probably evidence of a disaster to a tow caught in the storm.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Trial of the Nihilists Charged With Complicity in the Murder of the Czar

ST PETERSBURG, March 30. The Minister of Justice is overwhelmed with applications for admission to the trial of the Nihilists All five prisoners will be charged with belonging to a secret society for subverting the existing order of things, and with complicity in the assassination of the Emperor Public curiosity centres in the female prisoner, Sophie Pieoffsky, whose connections, social position and superior education, excite general wonder She is the daughter of a former Provincial Governor and the niece of an officer of high rank in the army According to the confessions of Pieoffsky and Teleahoff they both know and they alone of the attempt to be made on the Czar's life, and the time and place; their fellow conspirators in London and elsewhere only knew in a general way, that another attempt would be made.

Russakoff was only informed of what was required of him on the day of the murder, Jelaboff, the chief director in the matter, having been arrested two days before Pieoffsky became the guiding spirit and sent Russakoff and the other murderer with bombs to the stations assigned them. Russakoff protests he was not in any way admitted to the councils of the conspirators, but was merely a fellow worker. He asserts that the Nihilists latterly have had no money, that there was considerable disagreement among them, and they would probably have dispersed had their last attempt failed. Pieoffsky and Jelaboff avow that the object of their operations was to terrorize the country, disarrange the machinery of Government and bring about if possible a socialists' republic, after the pattern of the Paris Commune. The other two prisoners, Michaeloff and the woman Helfmonn, seem of less importance. Both refuse to answer the charges against them

COAL Considering that within the past thirty days there has been a decline in coal freights of over a dollar on a ton, as well as a fall of 25 cents a ton on the wholesale price of the article in New York, many poor but honest people are anxiously inquiring when there will be a correspond ing reduction in the retail price.

Dr. Stevens has in his stable at North New Portland a deer that is a curiosity in that section. It was taken in the Dead River woods near Flagstaff. It completely answered the description given by books of the mule deer of the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains.

Dr. Bacon leaves a widow and three children his two sons living in Boston and daughter at home.

The drawings began at half-past two and were finished at half-past six. The numbers drawing prizes will be officially announced to-day. We learn however, that No. 8203 drew the principal prize. The affair is said to have passed off quietly and satisfactorily to all, the management having used every precaution against possible annoyance.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. An exchange of real estate has been effected between Hon. Wm. B. Hayford and the heirs of the Pickering estate, Mr. Hayford exchanging the building now occupied by James Tobin, the clothier, who has leased the store for a term of years, for the adjoining building occupied in part by J. C. Buzzell, the hardware dealer. Mr. Buzzell will shortly remove to the store now occupied by N. M. Jones & Co., which is to be vacated at once that needed repairs may be made. If it shall meet with the views of the committee who have the matter under consideration, Mr. Hayford will cause his newly-acquired store to be elegantly fitted up with special reference to the needs of a first-class banking house, when it will be occupied by the Kenduskeag National Bank. The upper stories will be converted into desirable offices suitable for banking business and kindred purposes.

A WILD RUNAWAY. A pair of horses belonging to Charles Twombly, of Monroe, disturbed the peaceful quiet of our streets, yesterday forenoon, by indulging in a grand "go-as-you-please." Arriving in West Market Square the horses, with cart still attached, attempted to board a buggy in which Albert H. Parker, of this city, was riding. That gentleman by this manoeuvre was forcibly ejected, but, we are happy to state, received no injuries. The rural steeds finally collided with a granite post in front of Charles Hale's store, which terminated the race. The buggy was but little damaged. We did not learn that the runaway horses were seriously injured.

A VALUABLE PEN. Kimball, the Georgia millionaire, formerly a Maine man and brother of Charles P. Kimball, is very fond of a certain gold pen. When asked why he did not get a new one he said: "I have used that pen constantly ever since 1856 In that time it has signed bonds or drawn checks or notes aggregating over fifty million dollars in value. It has drawn the papers by which railroads were built, factories established, hotels put up and employment given to thousands of men. As battered up as it is, its work has just fairly begun. I suppose it has had more to do with building up Atlanta than any other pen, and yet it is mighty certain to do more for Atlanta than it has ever done yet."

KELLEHER'S INSURANCE AGENCY. The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Richard Kelleher, Esq, Insurance Agent, containing the annual statements of the several insurance companies represented at the Agency, 18 Exchange-st. Following are the names of the companies and the net surplus of each: Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, net surplus, $9 228,294.21 Manufacturers F. and M Ins. Co. of Boston, $328 579 10, Phoenix Assurance Company of London, net surplus in the United States, $393,058.73; Buffalo German Insurance Co, Buffalo, N. A SHARP REBUKE. The Denver Inter Ocean tells the following good story: "Mrs Blaine had been some years in Washington before Mrs. ——, wife of a Democratic Senator, called on her. At last Mrs. —— was announced one day. As Mrs. Blaine entered her drawing room to receive her guest she noticed her colored cook slip out hurridly from the reception room where Mrs —— was waiting. This surprised her, but she said nothing. Next day, however, her valuable cook left her to find a place in Mrs ——'s kitchen. At a State dinner soon afterwards given at the Executive Mansion these ladies chanced to be placed with only a seat between them at the table. The gentleman sitting between noticing that Mrs. Blaine did not address a word of conversation to his other neighbor, exclaimed:—'Why, Mrs. Blaine, you know Mrs Senator ——, do you not?' 'No,' was the answer, loud enough for all around to hear. 'Mrs —— called the other day at my house on my cook, and her card was handed to me by mistake. My cook returned the call.'"

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS. Where is the society with the long name? Surely there is need of its humane work in Bangor. A walk through the by-ways—the alleys—in the market squares, and along the wharves in this city, will discover many wretched, starved animals, overloaded, and cruelly beaten by their brutal drivers. Yesterday afternoon, our reporter observed a man who drives an accommodation stage between here and a suburban village, most unmercifully beating his horse, and that, too, seemingly without the least provocation. It was the expressed opinion of all who observed the brutal affair that it was a pity that the driver—the greatest brute of the two—could not be subjected to the cruel treatment he had wickedly inflicted upon his poor horse. Such scenes are of too frequent occurrance in our city, and all good citizens would rejoice if a sufficient number of humane gentlemen would interest themselves in behalf of that noblest and most abused of all man's dumb servants—the horse,—that to some extent at least the poor creatures might be protected against the cruel tortures to which they are now daily subjected by brutal, drunken yahoos.

JUVENILE PARTY

A Pleasing Scene.

During the past season Mr. M H. Andrews has had a large number of young folks under his instruction in his juvenile department in dancing, which came to a happy termination yesterday afternoon, on which occasion he gave a very pleasant children's party. Heretofore it has been his custom to close the season with a juvenile exhibition in the evening, but this year he decided to give a party more with the view of entertaining the little ones than displaying their proficiency in the terpsichorean art. It was very evident, however, that they had received a thorough course of instruction, as even the little tot of only a few summers went through all the difficult dances in a manner that drew forth many exclamations of delight from the large number of parents and spectators present. It was a pleasing scene and we congratulate Mr. Andrews on the success which has attended his efforts with this particular department. The following was the

BANGOR & PISCATAQUIS RAILROAD.

A Meeting of the Stockholders Yesterday.

The adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the B. & P. Railroad was held yesterday forenoon, at half-past ten o'clock, at the office of the Company on Washington street. President Giddings called the meeting to order, after which Secretary Blood read the proceedings of the last meeting. The following report of the special committee, appointed at the last meeting, was read and accepted:

To the Stockholders of the Bangor & Piscataquis Railroad Company,

The committee to whom was committed the drawing of a bill to be presented to the Legislature in relation to completing the road, and to whom was referred the paper submitted by Mr. Merrill with the outline of a plan for the appointment of a Receiver for the road, report—That they were unable to perfect any new bill before the adjournment of the Legislature.

In regard to the proposition for a Receiver, your committee are disposed to regard it favorably. We have not all been able to give it the full examination so important a matter requires. We do not see why all interested may not be protected, and the road thereby completed and made not only more valuable in itself, but also conducing to a larger volume of business than can possibly otherwise be realized, and if there should no be found any legal objections to the plan, we should approve and recommend its adoption.

M. GIDDINGS,
A. G. WAKEFIELD,
WM H. MCCRILLIS,
J. P. BASS,
G. C. DOW,
T. W. VOSE.

Bangor, March 29th, 1881.

The report was accepted. On motion of Mr. Vose, a committee of three was appointed by the stockholders to draft resolutions to be presented to the City Council as to what course should be pursued in order to complete the road to the lake. This question was discussed by Messrs. Vose, McCrillis and Wakefield. The committee was appointed as follows: Moses Giddings, T. W. Vose and Wm. H McCrillis.

Adjourned until five o'clock, at which hour the committee was to report.

On reassembling, at five o'clock, the report of the committee was read and accepted, which, however, was not ready to be submitted for publication.

"Diamond Cut Diamond."

About the time of the inauguration of President Garfield, one of our popular young business men was made the victim of a practical joke, and he has ever since been watching for an opportunity to "get even" with the perpetrator, who is a gentleman of means and high standing in social and business circles. Yesterday the long-waited for opportunity came. Learning that the latter gentleman had purchased a ticket in Nichols' gift enterprise, which he subsequently sold at a discount to another party, the gentleman first alluded to assembled several friends, and between them a scheme was concocted. Stepping to a telephone, the operator at the Central office was requested to connect with the office of the intended victim. In a moment after the connection had been made the query came trembling over the wire: "Who is it that wants to speak with me?" "Mr. Nichols, at Nichols' stable," was the reply. "Well, what is wanted?" came fluttering into the ear of No. 1. "We understand that you hold ticket No —." "Y e-s—that is, I—well, yes!" "We are happy to inform you that your number has drawn the Bradbury colt," whispered the somebody, who was supposed to be Mr. Nichols himself. Now our friend had long cast envious eyes upon the Bradbury colt, and its possession was the one thing lacking to make him perfectly happy. But the lucky number was no longer his. How could he obtain possession of it again? A thought struck him. He telephoned for the holder thereof to come to his office immediately. The summons was promptly responded to in person, he having first been informed of what was in the wind. "What'll you take for the ticket I sold you the other day," were the first words that greeted the visitor. "You see, there's a rumor that that number has drawn a horse," he continued without waiting for a reply, "and I'll give you $25 for the ticket and run my chances." "It's a bargain!" cried the visitor. "Now a trade's a trade—and no backing out," said the purchaser, as he counted out the money and pocketed the coveted ticket. A few minutes later, a gentleman was seen steering under full sail toward Nichols' stable. Arriving there he flourished the ticket and demanded the Bradbury colt. But sad was that man's countenance, and grieved was his heart when Mr Nichols told him that probably he had been "sold," as that particular number drew a—blank. He now mourneth in secret over the wickedness that stalketh abroad at noon-day, like a roaring lion, seeking whom it may devour.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

William J. Coughlin of Somerville, Mass, says In the fall of 1876 I was taken with BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle when to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

AN HONEST PREPARATION.

The world is so crammed with swindles that a really honest man or honest thing is almost as scarce as robins in January. Yet Mr. J. H. Northrop, of Lansingburg, N. WHAT IS BEHIND IT?

No amount of money can stand in the stead of a good name. It is a blunder everywhere and every time to suppose the loss of character can be paid for. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., proprietor of the great medicine called "Favorite Remedy," would have but little confidence to recommend the public to buy and use it if his own good name were not behind it. But the fact that he has staked his reputation upon it ought to be, and is, better than a thousand cheap certificates—in the opinion of the people. The Doctor is a regular physician-surgeon, and despises a humbug as heartily as any man. FELLOWS' [illegible] NEURALGIA.

It has been ascertained that the most inveterate cases of neuralgia are cured by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. Not only is the principal disease eradicated, but the patient is made vigorous and strong: the stomach, the blood, the skin become healthy, and he obtains a new lease of enjoyable life.
The only satisfactory treatment of neuralgia is by strengthening the nervous system. A person with strong nerves never suffers from this disease.
The virtues of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such that other remedies are seldom required.
The demand for Hypophosphite and other Phosphorus preparations at the present day, is largely owing to the good effects and success following the introduction of this article in the United States.
IMPORTANT.
Should the invalid have any difficulty in procuring the Compound Syrup in his vicinity, let him not be put off with any other remedy, because this article has not its equal in the diseases for which it is recommended.
NOTE.—Be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good." The highest class medical men in every large city, where it is known, recommend it.

Dr. C. W. BENSON,

Inventor and Proprietor of the
CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS.

These Pills have met with the most Remarkable Success as is attested by the Immense Sales they have Attained.

Parsons, Bangs & Co., have had Eighteen Hundred Dozens the Past Year.

Hundreds have testified to the Benefit they have derived from their use in the cure of Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Indigestion.

It is a Fully Established Fact, Based on Actual Experience, and There is No Kind of Doubt but They Will Cure These Diseases.

DR. C. W. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Indigestion or Dyspepsia, and will cure any case, no matter how obstinate, if properly used. They are not a cure-all, but only for those special diseases. They contain no opium, morphine or quinine, and are not a purgative, but regulate the bowels and cures constipation by curing or removing the causes of it. They have a charming effect upon the skin, and a lovely, quieting effect upon the nervous system, simply by feeding its ten thousand hungry, yea, in some cases starving absorbants. They make or create nerve matter and give power, force and buoyancy to the nerves, and in that way increase mental force, endurance and brilliancy of mind. Nobody that has a nervous system should neglect to take them two or three months in each year, simply as a nerve food, if for no other purpose. WOMAN'S TRIUMPH.

A Severe Surgical Operation. It is Endured without taking Ether. Subject, Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, N. Y.

(From the Correspondence of the Kingston, N. Y., Freeman.)
The case of Mrs. Edward Myers, of Rondout, New York, furnishes an apt illustration of woman's power of endurance. This lady had been treated for months in the usual way for Erysipelas of the hand, without benefit. Not until her hand had become a mass of putrified flesh, did she turn to Dr. Kennedy, proprietor of the "Favorite Remedy," for help.
He at once informed her that it was impossible to save the hand—it must be amputated. She received this terrible intelligence quietly, declined to take ether, stipulating merely to hold her husband's hand during the operation, and underwent the painful process without moving a muscle or uttering a groan. Dr. Kennedy then gave "Favorite Remedy" freely to cleanse the blood and prevent the return of the disease, and Mrs. Myers now lives and rejoices in her great deliverance.
"Favorite Remedy" is fast becoming a trusted household friend in all cases of Female Weakness and diseases of the blood. One dollar a bottle. Your druggist has it.

Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.
Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails.
Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 7½ to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

POSITIVELY CURED
BY
Benson's Capcine Porous Plasters.

Reasons Why they are Preferred to All Other Porous Plasters or External Remedies:
First.
Because they possess all the merit of the strengthening porous plaster, and contain in addition thereto the newly discovered powerful and active vegetable combination which acts with increased rubefacient, stimulating, sedative and counter irritant effects.
Second.
Because they are a genuine pharmaceutical preparation, and so recognized by the profession.
Third.
Because they are the only plasters that relieve pain at once.
Fourth.
Because they will positively cure diseases which other remedies will not even relieve.
Fifth.
Because over 5000 physicians and druggists have voluntarily testified that they are superior to all other plasters or medicines for external use.
Sixth.
Because the manufacturers have received the only medals ever given for porous plasters.
